In 2001 we captured the final events leading up to the closure of McClellan Air Force Base in Sacramento, CA.

We designed three separate CD sets which commemorated the three final major events leading up to the deactivation of the base on July 13, 2001.

These CD sets contained historical photos of the base, sound bytes taken from videos of the ceremonies, still photos and even mpeg videos created from the actual videos.

The response to these CD's was overwhelming. One of the CD's, "The Mission Completion Ceremony", was mass produced and is now being offered for sale in the McClellan Aviation Museum.

Also during that final year, we created numerous CD's for Deactivation Ceremonies, Wing Inactivations, Flag Folding Ceremonies and Retirements of both military and civilian personnel.

If you have a video that was taken during your special event, we can digitize it and include it as part of your Digital Scrapbook. When you click on the movie icon in your Digital Scrapbook, Windows Media Player will automatically start and you will be able to view the ceremony video right on your computer screen.

To create these unique packaging designs, we cut segments from several photos from the actual ceremony and created customized images like the ones shown on this page.

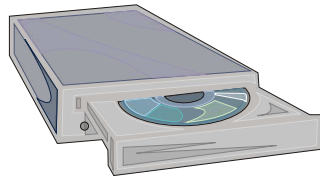

Using the creative techniques we have developed, we can create a unique packaging design for each customer.

We will capture the emotion and dignity of your special occasion so you can look back on it with pride for years to come.

This is an example of the creative packaging we can design for your custom commemorative CD.

Autorun Feature

Our CD's are designed to start automatically when the CD is placed in your computer's CD ROM drive.

Once inserted, the CD will automatically start your web browser. It is recommended that Internet Explorer 5.5 or higher be used to view the CD's and that Windows Media Player be used to view any Mpeg movies or play any sound bytes contained on the CD's.

 Each CD comes with a custom designed navigational interface that allows you to browse through your Digital Scrapbook with ease.

Square One Graphics specializes in small production runs. Other companies require a minimum of 100 before they will accept your order. We will produce as few as you need.
